Guan Yin is the Buddha's helper. She is kind and wise and helps all the beings on earth. Helping is her job. When someone needs help, she can appear in any form to help them, but she never tells anyone who she is.

People from different places make statues and paintings of Guan Yin. The statues and paintings are as different as the artists who create them, so are her names.

If you feel sad or lonely, recite Guan Yin's name. And like a moon reflected in water, you will feel happy and peaceful again.

If you're having trouble with friends, recite Guan Yin's name and think it over. Try using kind words and give them the help they need.

Instilling Goodness Books is a branch of the Buddhist Text Translation Society. Its goal is to open the hearts and minds of children to their full potential through art and story. Ancient Buddhist stories are retold in their language on how to be wise, kind and thoughtful to beings of all kinds. The center is located at the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas in Ukiah Valley, California, a spiritual community founded by Venerable Master Huan Hua. It is the home of Dharma Realm Buddhist University and Instilling Goodness Elementary School and Developing Virtue Secondary School. 1

The schools offer a unique educational program that goes beyond the state requirements and focuses on developing qualities such as filial respect, compassion, and integrity.

Meditation and bilingual education in English and Chinese are part of the curriculum. Boys and girls are educated separately.

Summer camps are held every year. For information about our schools and summer camp, please visit our website at www.igdvs.org

Venerable Master Hua's words to children:

Young friends, you are like young trees growing taller day by day, and in the future you will become the pillars of your country. You should do great things and work for world peace.

First, you must learn to be a good person. What is a good person? A good person is respectful to his parents, respectful to his teachers and helpful to his friends and his country. Under the leadership of good people, a nation will be strong, peaceful and prosperous. It is your responsibility is to stop the wars in the world so everyone can be safe and happy, well-fed and well-clothed. Then the world will be in harmony.
